Re: United States v. Davit Yeghoyan
20 Cr. 652 (VM)

Dear Judge Marrero:

Defendant Davit Yeghoyan ("Yeghoyan") has been at liberty since December of 2020 on a $1,000,000 personal recognizance bond that includes several conditions including location monitoring and home detention. Yeghoyan has been fully compliant with all the terms of his release. On August 19, 2022, the Court sentenced defendant to principally 45 months of incarceration and granted a 90 day voluntary surrender application. By this letter, Yeghoyan respectfully requests that the home detention condition of his release be amended to a curfew condition. The curfew would be set by Pretrial Services ("PTS"). Location monitoring and all other conditions would remain in effect. This modification would allow Yeghoyan to spend time with his newborn child outside of the home and to see family members before he reports to prison. The government, by Assistant United States Attorney Emily Deininger, and PTS, by United States Pretrial Officer Josh Rothman, consent to this application.

Thank you for Your Honor's consideration of this request.

Very truly yours,
